The Third U.S. PVM Users’ Group Meeting was held May 7 to 9, 1995, at the Hyatt Regency in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The meeting provided an opportunity for users of PVM to meet each other, share ideas and experiences, and meet some members of the PVM Team.

Presentations and Papers

The conference included:

- Introduction to PVM Tutorial by Adam Beguelin

  This tutorial will cover the basics of programming in PVM.

- Advanced PVM Tutorial by Robert Manchek and Jim Pruyne

  This tutorial included information on the internal details of the PVM system and how to use advanced PVM features such as the tracing, hoster, and tasker interfaces.

- Invited Talks by PVM Developers and Advanced Users

- Contributed Talks from the PVM User Community

- Social Activities

  The banquet on Monday evening was held in the Foyer of the Carnegie Music Hall. Raj Reddy, Dean of the CMU School of Computer Science, was the after banquet speaker.
